his extensive experience with the Western Electric Company and Sandia Corporation to discuss his type of work in large businesses. He has been Secretary and Comptroller of the Corporation since it was organized in 1949.

Mr. Dempsey, head of the Corporation's 4000 organization, first came to Sandia in August, 1949, and at that time made a study of the accounting methods used in the Laboratory. In mid-October of the same year he returned and took over the post which he has since held.

Prior to coming to Sandia he was Superintendent of Accounting at the Western Electric Company plant in Winston Salem, N.C. At that time it was known as Winston Salem Specialty Products Shops and today is called North Carolina Works of the Radio Division of Western Electric Company.

Other Sandians who participated in the conference were Emil Deuschle, 4150, Ray Phillips, AEC auditor-in-charge, Harold V. Catt, 4310, Al Spengeman, 4150, and E. J. Cooney, 4100.

"Albuquerque's Tax Headache" is the topic of the meeting and three experts on city finance are slated to speak.

Woman's Club to Entertain Spouses At Holiday Brunch

The Sandia Base Woman's Club will sponsor a "Holiday-Mexican Brunch" for their husbands and guests Sunday, Dec. 13, from 12 noon to 3 p.m. at the Sandia Base Officers Club.

The reservation deadline is Dec. 11. Arrangements must be made directly with the Officers Club. For the convenience of those with small children the Night Nursery will be open from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. that day. Reservations for children may be made by calling ext. 2-4227.

"Statistics," says Jack Hansen, 2200, Chairman of the Laboratory Community Chest Campaign, "cannot do justice to the spirit that lies behind the cold figures. The response from the people of Sandia to the urgent needs of their community is a wonderful thing."

"Speaking for myself, I'm proud and happy to have had a part in the Red Feather Drive, and I know my pride is shared by all the Sandians who contributed. Their generosity will mean a finer community."

Working with Chairman Hansen on the drive committee were A. F. "Doc" Cone, 1510, Emil Deuschle, 4310, Charles W. Campbell, 1900, Harold W. Sharp, 3100, Kenneth Erickson, 5130, C. W. "Curley" Egger, 2414, Kenneth Shinn, 2471, and William Bramlett, 2451. They guided the efforts of the more than 600 Sandians who worked to make the campaign a success.

The final report on the 1953 Campaign notes that $38,904 has been pledged to the Bernalillo County Fund. This represents an 18.6 per cent increase over last year's total. The total 1953 figure includes employee gifts, Sandia Corporation donation, and gifts from Anderson-Dunham Co. and the Coronado Club.

The number of those contributing has moved up from 90.1 per cent in 1952 to 90.4 per cent this year. The average contribution was boosted from $6.58 last year to $7.34 in the recently completed drive.

The payroll deduction method of contributing was widely used this year. Figures show that 60 per cent of the Sandians contributing used this method and it is also interesting to note that this 60 per cent contributed 72 per cent of the total amount.

Another statistic reveals that Sandians contributed one-seventh of the Albuquerque Community Chest budget of $274,800.

Twenty-one departments in the Corporation displayed 100 per cent contributions. The departments and the number of employees in the department are:

2540, 108 persons; 2220, 103; 2530, 94; 5330, 31; 5250, 28; 3120, 26; 3230, 26; 1730, 23; 5350, 23; 3220, 20; 4310, 20; 2340, 20; 1710, 19; 2520, 17; 2310, 17; 2110, 9; 2510, 8; 1220, 7; 6010, 4; 3210, 3; 1550, 2.

Drivers' Licenses To Be Issued on Base Dec. 7-11

If you are one of the many whose driver's license expires December 31, you'll be interested to learn that a representative of the Drivers' License Division, New Mexico State Police, will be at the Provost Marshal's Office, building P-220, to issue 1954 driver licenses from Dec. 7 through Dec. 11. Those who find it convenient may secure their licenses by applying during the noon hour or on Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at State Police Headquarters on East Central Avenue.

When applying you must present your 1953 license—issued by any state. The cost is $1 per license.

Ralph Pena Back at Work After 2 Years Military Service

Newly returned to Sandia Laboratory after two years in the Army is Ralph Pena, who is now assigned to 2461.

Before leaving for military service, Ralph was a vehicle messenger. Part of his Army duty was at Fort Bliss, Texas, the rest in Japan.

Last year he spent his first Christmas away from home—in Japan. "It's sure good to be back," the former Corporal says. Ralph lives in Albuquerque with his parents.

Larry Bailey Back After 147 Combat Missions in Korea

Back from Korea with a Bronze Star and an Air Medal with six clusters is Lawrence R. Bailey, Jr., who visited his friends at Sandia on a recent leave. Larry reports to Ft. Bragg on Dec. 21.

It was in Sept., 1950, that Larry came to work here in 2452. He was recalled into the Army in April, 1951. He served for 11 months as an Army liaison pilot, flying 147 missions to earn five clusters to add to the Air Medal and two clusters won in World War II.

Larry served three years in the Air Corps during World War II, flying a B-29 in the Asiatic-Pacific Theater.

He has a wife and three children living in Albuquerque and as soon as he's discharged Larry plans to come back and take up his old job in 2452 again.

One of the earliest signs of the Christmas Season, usually appearing about mid-November, is the annual sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals.

Most Albuquerqueans have already received letters containing the sheets of colored stamps which this year carry the illustration of a young caroler.

Tuberculosis seals have been with us for so long that many Americans are finding them indispensable when it comes to mailing Christmas cards and wrapping packages.

Full Collection

Joan Barnett, 4222 (5234), has a collection of specimens of all tuberculosis seals issued. Joan reports that the original seals, appearing in 1907, were sold by the American Red Cross.

They were red and white, had a holly wreath printed on them and carried the message "Merry Christmas." They sold so well, Joan has discovered, that the words "and a Happy New Year" were later added and sale continued for a week after Christmas.

For several years the Red Cross issued the seals and then the American Tuberculosis Association took over the project and has made it a holiday tradition.

Finances Work

Income from the sale of these stickers always helps finance a year's program of vitally needed measures in the fight against tuberculosis.

These measures include low-cost chest X-ray services, rehabilitation and advisory services for the sick, social and medical research, and public health and information.

More than half of the money raised here stays in Bernalillo county.

Tuberculosis is an urgent and vital problem of the people in Albuquerque and New Mexico. When you buy Christmas seals, you are joining in the fight against tuberculosis.

Each speaker will be evaluated in two-minute talks by Charles Carpenter, 1241; Ed Roth, 1643; R. A. Hayenga, 5431, and Earl Craven, 2443, with Joff Myers, 1322, as alternate.

The general evaluation of the meeting will be presented by Bob Spence, 5221. Invocation will be given by Cedric Senter, 5421.

Shea, Vice President and General Manager, Sandia Corporation, Mr. Beal, Mr. Kelly, and Corporation President James W. McRae.

Let's Look at History

August 7, 1945

"First Atomic Bomb Dropped in Japan . . ."

September 24, 1949

"Atom Blast in Russia Disclosed . . ."

February 1, 1950

"Truman Orders Hydrogen Bomb Built . . ."

August 9, 1953

"Malenkov Claims Hydrogen Bomb . . ."

These headlines, taken from the front page of the New York Times, touch only four high points of the history of the "modern" atom, a story which began about the time of World War II.

We all can recall other headlines which will long remain in our memories. Some of these events stand out proudly, telling of recent progress in our atomic program. Men's names appear in these headlines and the nation feels proud of them as well as indebted to them for their services.

Other "atom" headlines are recalled. Bitter, disappointing, telling of disgraceful events, of treachery and naivete. These news events make us ashamed of those black marks in the history of our country's atomic program.

There will be more headlines too. They will relate great strides in research and the benefits to mankind through medicine and industry. They will tell of new strides in the defense of our country.

These are the headlines which are to come in the future. It is up to each American, each individual in the atomic energy program, each person at Sandia Laboratory to help write these coming events. Our performance today will determine the nature of tomorrow's news stories.

What will be our contribution?

the way we heard it

If a Man Answers . . .

What do you say when you get a wrong number? Or, better, what do you say when someone gets you by mistake?

If you are the caller, and find you have the wrong number, for heaven's sakes, don't just hang up without uttering a word. If the answering party has identified his or her number you should say, "I have the wrong number. Please excuse the call."

If you don't add the last sentence you leave the person you disturbed nothing to say. If you do beg his pardon, he need only say, "certainly," and hang up.

These and other etiquette tips are included in a forthcoming booklet, "Guide to Modern Manners," to be on the racks soon.

Spice of Life

A questionnaire to provide information for the locator file was distributed recently. From one office came a form signed by a male employee who described his "current marital status" as "touch and go."

Carle Dance Well Attended

Patrons of the dance (ballroom, that is) turned out 500-strong for the recent Frankie Carle dance at the Coronado Club.

The policy of scheduling an occasional name band seems to be appreciated by members. The affair showed a $5 profit on admissions, in line with the plan to make each activity self-supporting if possible.

The next name band scheduled is Jan Garber, in February.

Booklet Rack Notes

The booklet racks were almost bare for a couple of weeks because of a temporary shortage of booklets. More are coming in now, and some interesting selections will be offered during the next few weeks.

A holiday favorite soon to appear is a little booklet of old favorite Christmas carols.

Korean Vets Get Answers

Veterans of the Korean conflict can get the answers to questions about GI benefits by getting in touch with the Public Relations Division, Bldg. 301, ext. 26150 or 21253.

The office has a limited supply of pamphlets giving the answers to frequently asked questions of veterans.

Narrow Escape

Loren T. Edmondson, formerly of Org. 2332 and now on military leave with the air force, was a crew member on the ill-fated C-47 that crashed during a snowstorm at Kirtland Field two weeks ago. Captain Edmondson, who entered service in June, 1951, was hospitalized at Sandia Base.

Purdy Meigs, 5132, and his wife celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary in a unique way. They went to Golden, N. M., where they panned for gold—his fellow employees ask "Are you trying for 50?" The Meigs advise anyone contemplating a gold-panning excursion to that area to take along plenty of water as the stream beds are dry.

Cecile Hawk, 1633-1, will spend her vacation in Albuquerque over the holidays. Her husband will be home from Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

Other vacationers are Bill Rosebeary, 1633-2, in Fredonia, Kans.; Tex Irvin, 1633-2, and Tex Murdoch, 1631-1, both went vacationing, where else but in Texas!

THIS cutie-pie, Vicki Snodgrass, startled her parents recently when she ate a box of chocolate medicine. Her father, Harry, 2561-4, rushed home at the urgent telephone call from his wife. Vickie is all right now, though the effects were trying on the 3-year-old.

Sandian Enjoys Reunion With Gen. W. F. Dean

When Major General William F. Dean, Congressional Medal of Honor winner, veteran of three years in a Communist prison camp, was told an Armistice Day celebration was planned for him in his home town, one of his first thoughts was to ask that his boyhood friend, Fred Gross, be invited to attend.

Fred, who works in 2532, and the

"I've always known Bill," Fred says. "Our parents were good friends and we just sort of grew up together."

The two boys hunted, fished and swam together and when they finally left their home town they kept in touch with each other over the years.

The Armistice celebration was a reunion for the two friends. "He still calls me Fritz—one of the few persons who ever did," Fred recalls.

Dean is planning to stop over in Albuquerque soon to see Fred and his wife, Mary, also a childhood friend of the general's.

"We're looking forward to it," Fred says. "He's a grand guy."

Parties by the Score Planned for Club During Christmas Season

December heralds the holidays with Coronado Club parties galore for Sandians this month.

Starting off the season tonight is the 5400 group who will enjoy a buffet dinner at 8 p.m. at the Coronado Club, with dancing to follow. On the menu will be Steamship Roast and Mountain Trout. Phil Graham's orchestra will entertain, and a skit is planned to further liven up the evening. Committee members include Charles Harp, Robert Jacques, Rex London, George Donaldson, Ed Checketts, Bill Lee, Bob Crane, Bill O'Connell, and Dale Sparks.

La Caña Room Party

Tentative plans include a buffet supper followed by dancing to Al Hamilton's music. All of 3100 have been invited to attend. Admission to 1900's holiday event will be $2.50 plus one can of milk to be donated to the needy. The party will start at 8 p.m. at the club, first dinner, then dancing to the music of the MBC trio. Committee members include H. M. Willis, Eugene K. Baker, Frank H. Viquesney and Tom Zudick.

Questionnaires distributed among members of the 2300 organization determined the kind of party the group will have Dec. 12 at the Coronado Club. A chicken dinner at 6:30 p.m. will start festivities, then there will be dancing to the music of Max Apodaca's 8-piece orchestra. Joining with the 2300 organization in the party are employees of the two manufacturing relations engineering departments, 2530 and 2550.

Articles Feature D. A. Quarles In Defense Office

Sandia Corporation's former President, Donald A. Quarles, has been the subject of articles in several magazines and has been photographed for the front cover of two others.

Mr. Quarles, who is now Assistant Secretary of Defense for Research and Development, is pictured on the

The honor of being named a Fellow in the Institute of Radio Engineers was also awarded Mr. Quarles recently. On Nov. 10, the Institute's Board of Directors unanimously appointed him a Fellow effective January 1. Out of the more than 30,000 IRE members only 71, including Mr. Quarles, were elected Fellows.

The requirements for the distinction state that he be an engineer or scientist in radio or allied fields . . . be distinctive in his profession . . . be eminently qualified to take responsible charge of important radio or allied work (and to have taken such charge for at least three years).

cover of the November-December issue of Ordnance, a magazine devoted to scientific and industrial preparedness.

The September issue of Chemical and Engineering News has as a cover picture the oath of office being administered to Mr. Quarles by J. E. Moore, director of personnel of the office of the Secretary of Defense. Deputy Secretary R. M. Keyes, representing Secretary Wilson, was present for the ceremony.

Aviation Week

"Help Wanted" were the words opening the Chemical and Engineering News article about Mr. Quarles. The piece told how Mr. Quarles was the man who could "prepare a complete integrated military research and development program involving expenditures of $1.3 billion a year."

Washington Roundup section of the October issue of Aviation Week set forth Mr. Quarles' policies which will govern his administration. They included decentralization of research and development activities, increased emphasis on use of private industry and science, and the rushing of projects with a direct bearing on continental defense.

Bell System Magazine

Among other of his policies as reported by the magazine are continuance of technical standing committees with a trend to "hold them down," and an improved "selectivity" of projects through expert beforehand advice.

The Reporter, monthly publication of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, also carried the picture of Mr. Quarles receiving his oath of office from Mr. Moore. Mr. Quarles was a Vice-President of Bell Laboratories before becoming President of Sandia Corporation.

From California Salton Sea News

Rodney Post, 5214-1, who was stricken with polio and has been confined in an iron lung in the Brawley Hospital for the past two months was moved last week to the Rancho Los Amigos hospital for polio victims at Hondo near Los Angeles, California. This was quite a feat as the distance was some 200 miles; however, the trip was made in less than five hours due to assistance rendered by the highway patrol escorts provided by each county as the van proceeded to its destination. Rodney withstood the trip with comparative ease and was safely installed in one of the iron lungs at Rancho Los Amigos, where he will receive physical therapy treatments in the effort to alleviate his total paralysis.

John L. Blackerby, 2482-2, has decided to become a property owner and has moved off the base to Indio, California.

A speedy recovery is wished for Burk C. Duff, 5214-3, who recently underwent surgery in a San Diego hospital.

Imperial Valley Fireman's Association held a combined meeting and barbecue in Calipatria last week. Firemen from Salton Sea Base who attended were: James Culver, Joe Medley and Verne McNabney, all from 2482-2.

Marvin Foster, 2483-3, who is one of El Centro High School's most ardent football rooters, has been happy since El Centro beat Imperial High by a large score recently.

Harry E. Schnarr, 2481-1, visits his private duck blind on Salton Sea faithfully. His sole desire this season is just one large goose. Last week his big chance came. Just before daylight he made it to the blind and was well settled when about a dozen of the biggest geese he ever saw came within shooting range. Two shots and a misfire. With two geese in the water and trying desperately to reload, his wife began shaking him and asking what was wrong. It was all a dream. The worst nightmare he ever had, Harry says.

President Given 50 Millionth Telephone Set

The 50 millionth telephone to be installed in the United States was placed on President Eisenhower's desk November 18.

It was presented to the President by Cleo F. Craig, President of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Warren B. Clay, President of United States Independent Telephone Association.

The scroll given to President Eisenhower at the presentation said in part:

"Telephone service was born in America. Here in the climate of freedom it has been most widely developed and used. In ever-increasing measure it has contributed to the unity, strength and progress of the nation."

The telephone set used in the presentation is basically a conventional model, has 48 gold stars around the base, contains the presidential seal and a plate which reads:

"The fifty millionth telephone in service in the nation. Presented to The President of The United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, November 18, 1953."

Snow Fell on La Madera Making the Sandia Lodge

A Skiers Paradise

The snow is deep, the tow is running, the Lodge is open, so let's go. A couple of weeks ago skiers from miles around took their boots and boards out of storage, wrapped chains on their tires and headed for the Sandia Mountain high lands — La Madera bound.

There they played at a sport as old as the Norse gods. With a good solid bed of snow underfoot contrasting with a bright warm sun above these winter-lovers are in their element.

ACE PHOTOGRAPHER Henry Strauss, 2310, gets in front of the camera instead of behind it. Henry took the pictures on this page. He's also one of the head men in the Albuquerque Ski Club.

COMPARING SKIS, a favorite topic with these aficionados, is Doris Ehret and Art Eldridge, 1542.

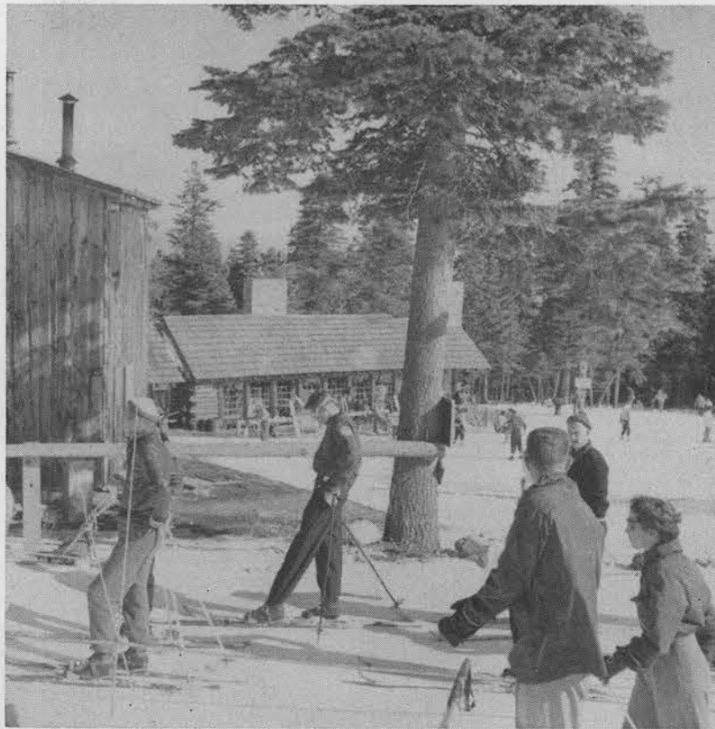

STARTING UP THE TOW, half the fun in itself, is Doris Ehret, 5132, and Kay Kuhn.

WAXING HER SKIS in front of the lodge is Pat Anderson, 5241, a veteran ski club member.

A LAUGHING QUARTET of skiers is formed by Betty, 3152, and Bud Newman and Bob, 1732, and Pat Morgan.

A LINE OF SKIERS wait their turn by the La Madera ski tow. The handsomely rugged Lodge is in the background. Days like this are what local ski enthusiasts wait for all year 'round.

A FEW POINTERS on skiing intricacies are given by Milo Milfs to his wife, Jean, 1613.

PRETTY SKI PATROL member Pat Paulston, 4222, prepares for a run. What a way to be rescued!

TIRED AND HAPPY, Jackie and Frank Murar, 5252, pose after a brisk morning on the slopes.

TRYING ON his skis for the first time this season is Dick Rudolph, 5252.

Cagers' Opening Games Indicate Exciting Season

Opening night of the 1953-54 Sandia Employees basketball season provided the usual amount of thrills, spills, rhubarbs and aching muscles, and when it was all over, the Hilltoppers had edged the Badgers 30-24, the Buckeyes trounced the Wolverines 49-16, and the Boilermakers, last season's champs, had an easy time defeating the Illini 56-21.

The next evening of play the Gophers took a real thriller from the Irish in an overtime period 44-42, the Spartans squeezed by the Hoosiers 37-36 and the Wildcats downed the Hawkeyes 47-33.

Other scores were: Hilltoppers 58, Illini 23; Buckeyes 42, Badgers 23; Boilermakers 51, Wolverines 11.

Teams in the Sandia Employees Basketball Association play two nights a week in the Sandia Base gymnasiums. On Monday evening, games are in the new gym and on Thursday evening, in the old gym. Game times both nights are 6:30, 7:45 and 9:00. Spectators are welcome. There is no admission charge.
